CARRY WORKERS’ COMPENSATION INSURANCE

Provide all necessary medical, surgical, and hospital treatment. Provide workers’ compensation insurance for all employees. Employees are prohibited by law from discriminating against employees because of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, or because the employee is a qualified individual with a disability. This rule does not apply when: (1) the employee reports verbally or in writing to the employer's employees informed of their protections and obligations under this chapter.

For details on the specific requirements for each wage payment method, please refer to the publication from J.J. Keller.

Discharge

Employers are prohibited by law from discharging or penalizing an employee because of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, or because the employee is a qualified individual with a disability. This rule does not apply when: (1) the employee reports verbally or in writing to the employer’s employees informed of their protections and obligations under this chapter.

For details on the specific requirements for each wage payment method, please refer to the publication from J.J. Keller.

Discharge

Employers are prohibited by law from discharging or penalizing an employee because of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, or because the employee is a qualified individual with a disability. This rule does not apply when: (1) the employee reports verbally or in writing to the employer’s employees informed of their protections and obligations under this chapter.

For details on the specific requirements for each wage payment method, please refer to the publication from J.J. Keller.

Discharge

Employers are prohibited by law from discharging or penalizing an employee because of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, or because the employee is a qualified individual with a disability. This rule does not apply when: (1) the employee reports verbally or in writing to the employer’s employees informed of their protections and obligations under this chapter.

For details on the specific requirements for each wage payment method, please refer to the publication from J.J. Keller.

Discharge

Employers are prohibited by law from discharging or penalizing an employee because of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, or because the employee is a qualified individual with a disability. This rule does not apply when: (1) the employee reports verbally or in writing to the employer’s employees informed of their protections and obligations under this chapter.

For details on the specific requirements for each wage payment method, please refer to the publication from J.J. Keller.

Discharge

Employers are prohibited by law from discharging or penalizing an employee because of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, or because the employee is a qualified individual with a disability. This rule does not apply when: (1) the employee reports verbally or in writing to the employer’s employees informed of their protections and obligations under this chapter.

For details on the specific requirements for each wage payment method, please refer to the publication from J.J. Keller.

Discharge

Employers are prohibited by law from discharging or penalizing an employee because of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, or because the employee is a qualified individual with a disability. This rule does not apply when: (1) the employee reports verbally or in writing to the employer’s employees informed of their protections and obligations under this chapter.

For details on the specific requirements for each wage payment method, please refer to the publication from J.J. Keller.

Discharge

Employers are prohibited by law from discharging or penalizing an employee because of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, or because the employee is a qualified individual with a disability. This rule does not apply when: (1) the employee reports verbally or in writing to the employer’s employees informed of their protections and obligations under this chapter.

For details on the specific requirements for each wage payment method, please refer to the publication from J.J. Keller.