WOMEN’S COMPENSATION ACT

Your employer may have qualified with the Workers’ Compensation Division for the coverage of injuries arising out of and in the course of employment. While at work or in or about the premises occupied, used or controlled by the employer, this coverage is required for extra hazardous industries and occupations. Employees in non-extra hazardous industries may opt for this coverage level, as well.

In the event of a work-related injury

1. Notify your employer how and when you were injured within 72 hours of the incident.
2. Submit a written report of your injury to Wyoming Workers’ Compensation within 10 days of the incident. You must complete and sign the “Wyoming Report of Injury” form. If your employer does not have any forms, call (307) 777-7741, or contact your nearest Workforce Center, for information on how or where to obtain an injury report form.
3. Submit the form to a local Workers’ Compensation office or representative, or mail it to:

Wyoming Workers’ Compensation

PO Box 20207
Cheyenne, WY 82002

The filing of an injury report is not a claim for lost wages or any other Workers’ Compensation benefit. You must apply for benefits. To obtain the appropriate application form, contact Workers’ Compensation. For more detailed information or assistance concerning benefits and procedures, call the Wyoming Workers’ Compensation Division at (307) 777-7741 or visit wyomingworkforce.org.
